

of dancing on the spacious floor. As usual, all the old favourites were rooted out and prepared for play. Needless to say, these well worn platters encouraged a goodly crowd to participate in the energetic 'jive' and a little later, in the gentler 'stroll'. Eddie Cochran (pictured), Cliff Richard, Elvis, Little Richard, Fats Domino, Ricky Nelson, Carl Perkins, Clyde McPhatter and many, many more were called upon in turn to entertain us with dynamic performances of their superb up tempo classics from their golden repertoires! Rock 'n' roll reigned supreme for the remainder of the evening with various requests being gladly honoured from time to time, adding to the great atmosphere created within moments of the start of the lively dancing session! It was pleasing to note three new faces in our midst. These included Cliff and Gregory, two Elvis fans from Ireland who were on holiday here enjoying the big Elvis weekend at Hemsby and had been invited along by one of our members to enjoy another evening of great music in our good company! Another new face was Cheryl Goodman, a friend of long standing member, Janet Broom, who I am delighted to say, joined us as a full member during the evening. Welcome to our Club, Cheryl! We look forward to your pleasant company at many future gatherings! The lively proceedings were reluctantly drawn to a very fitting close just before 10.45pm with a good crowd of members and guests present to enjoy the night's final offerings. The fabulous UK rocker, Billy Fury was called upon first, performing a splendid rendition of his all time great 1961 classic, 'Halfway To Paradise'. Then US teen idol, Ricky Nelson delighted the departing audience with a superb performance of his romantic lilting 1960 love ballad, 'Young Emotions', drawing the final curtain on another much enjoyed evening at the Aviary Suite! Wonderful!

evenings are back and hopefully, more members will be turning out to enjoy our great music and dancing during the forthcoming autumn and winter months! Support for this meeting was infinitely greater than the previous gathering, with at least twenty-eight members and guests present by mid evening. A small but enthusiastic band of early arrivals were knocking on the door by 7.25pm and within a few short moments were in their seats enjoying a fine selection of mid to late 'sixties classic chart hits from artistes as diverse as the Beatles, Rolling Stones, Johnny Nash, Elvis Presley, the Drifters (pictured), Cliff Richard,

Gerry and the Pacemakers, the McCoys, Bob Dylan, Billy Fury and the Big 'O'! Thirty minutes later, the floor was thrown open for our highly popular monthly 'By Request' session. We were certainly not short on the participation front on this occasion, with thirteen favourite tracks chosen by no fewer than five members which packed the half hour slot to capacity! For those interested, the numbers aired included 'Western Movies' (Olympics), 'Mona Lisa' (Conway Twitty), 'Queen Of The Hop' (Bobby Darin), 'Just Keep It Up' (Dee Clark) and 'C C Rider' (Chuck Willis) all courtesy of Mike and Sally Eke; 'I Like It' (Gerry & the Pacemakers), 'I Saw Her Standing There' (Beatles) and 'Rock-A-Hula Baby' (Elvis) all chosen by Tulsa Lange; 'Last Train To San Fernando' (Johnny Duncan & Blue Grass Boys) from Aaron Spicer; 'Rave On' and 'True Love Ways' (both Buddy Holly) courtesy of Reg Napper and last, but certainly by no means least, 'Let The Heartaches Begin' (Long John Baldry) and 'You'll Never Walk Alone' (Gerry & the Pacemakers) both selected by our new member, Cheryl Goodman. Next on the night's busy agenda was the September instalment of our hugely popular music quiz, so without further ado, the mike was swiftly handed over to our resident quizmaster, Bill Edwards to introduce the night's eagerly awaited competition! Moments later, we were all well engrossed in round one, attempting to identify the titles and artistes from a selection

Monday, 26th September 2005

This, our final meeting of the summer fell on a dry, breezy and overcast evening with dusk falling shortly after 7.30pm! Yes, the dark of six well known film favourites. Extra points were available to all those who could correctly name the film which each song featured in. A little tricky, especially if like myself, you are not a great movie buff! The second round comprised a further fourteen extracts from popular melodies, but this time, only required correct identification of the song titles and their respective artistes to score maximum points. The third round whisked us back some forty-one years to the musically memorable year of 1964. Ten of the year's greatest UK chart hits were aired as a medley and once again, we were invited to name those tunes along with their illustrious performers. Round four was the tricky 'intros' round, with a series of ten tantalising instrumental excerpts aired in quick succession. Again, our objective was to guess the songs these introduced along with their respective artistes before moving on to the concluding round which consisted of a customary five 'instrumental breaks', designed to test our knowledge of our favourite music to the hilt! Well done, Bill and yet again, many, many thanks for providing us with these excellent and highly entertaining little brain teasers! A brief announcements break followed the toughly fought quiz where members were gently reminded of our next meeting date before the lights were dimmed and the musical output swiftly swung into 'jive' mode! A sparkling array of well loved and often spun rockers were quickly selected and needless to say, these encouraged a small but enthusiastic group of dancers on to the spacious floor! Elvis, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Fats Domino, Charlie Rich, Ricky Nelson, Johnny & the Hurricanes and many others of equally high calibre provided the 'jives', whilst Clyde McPhatter, Buddy Holly, Leroy Van Dyke and Frankie Vaughan, amongst others, came up with the all important 'strollers'. A great atmosphere was soon evident, despite the lower attendance as the evening drew on, caused by folks with early morning starts having to depart early, but I am pleased to say that once again, many folks participated in the dancing activity and remained right up until the meeting's reluctant close at 10.45pm! A very special thank you to those members who did stay on to enjoy the night's final numbers! Brook Benton's delightful '59 ballad, 'So Many Ways', quickly followed by Ricky Nelson's lilting '62 flippersider 'I Need You', ensured the meeting concluded in fine style and those that remained until 'last orders' were certainly well rewarded!
